

The 3 Types - Helping Verbs

The 3 main types of verbs are Action Verbs, Linking Verbs, and Helping Verbs. Helping Verbs work with a main verb to help us understand more about the action taking place. There could be up to three Helping Verbs in a sentence. When Helping Verbs come together with a main verb, it is called a Verb Phrase. Underline the Verb Phrase and circle the Helping Verbs in the sentences below.

e.g. It has been raining for the last few days.

1. She will go to the beach next week.

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

5. We have watched the movie already.

6. Olivia did tell me the truth.

7. Pamela was feeling great this morning.

8. Justin might have brought towels.

9. Mom must have been tired.

The 3 Types - Helping Verbs

The 3 main types of verbs are Action Verbs, Linking Verbs, and Helping Verbs. Helping Verbs work with a main verb to help us understand more about the action taking place. There could be up to three Helping Verbs in a sentence. When Helping Verbs come together with a main verb, it is called a Verb Phrase. Underline the Verb Phrase and circle the Helping Verbs in the sentences below.

e.g. It has been raining for the last few days.

1. She will go to the beach next week.

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

5. We have watched the movie already.

6. Olivia did tell me the truth.

7. Pamela was feeling great this morning.

8. Justin might have brought towels.

9. Mom must have been tired.