

The 3 Types - Linking Verbs

The 3 main types of verbs are Action Verbs, Linking Verbs, and Helping Verbs. Linking Verbs tell us something about the subject by linking it with a noun or adjective in the sentence. Hence they are also called state-of-being verbs. Circle the Linking Verbs in the sentences below.

e.g. Catherine was at school.

1. Eddie and Ann are late to the party.

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

5. That sounds like Jim's voice.

6. The room seems very quiet.

7. I think the show was interesting.

8. Joe said the food tasted good.

9. They have not been talking for days.

The 3 Types - Linking Verbs

The 3 main types of verbs are Action Verbs, Linking Verbs, and Helping Verbs. Linking Verbs tell us something about the subject by linking it with a noun or adjective in the sentence. Hence they are also called state-of-being verbs. Circle the Linking Verbs in the sentences below.

e.g. Catherine was at school.

1. Eddie and Ann are late to the party.

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

5. That sounds like Jim's voice.

6. The room seems very quiet.

7. I think the show was interesting.

8. Joe said the food tasted good.

9. They have not been talking for days.