

A cartoon-style illustration of a spiral-bound calendar. The calendar is open to the first page of the year, which is yellow. The word "JANUARY" is written in black capital letters at the top. Below it, a large red number "1" is prominently displayed. Underneath the "1", the words "NEW YEAR'S DAY" are written in black capital letters. The calendar has a blue spiral binding on the left side. The pages are slightly curved, giving it a three-dimensional appearance.
