

Name _____

The Penguins of Antarctica

Read the passage below and fill in the blanks from the word bank.

Penguins are birds that live in the continent of _____. They are well-adapted to their _____ environment and have some unique features that help them survive.

One of the most interesting things about penguins is that they cannot fly. Unlike other birds, their wings have evolved into flippers, which are perfect for _____ in the water. Penguins are

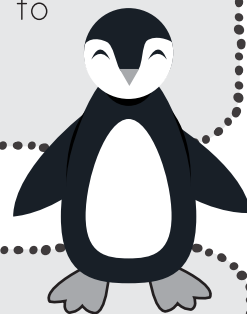

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

Even in the coldest place on Earth, penguins still have to be careful! There are some animals, like seals and sea lions, that see penguins as tasty treats. So, penguins stick together in their colonies to protect themselves from _____.

Word Bank:

waddle, Antarctica, feathers, swimming, cold, fish, colonies, predators