The Magic Door Part 1

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, in a cozy little house, there was a special closet. It was no ordinary closet, though. This closet had a magical secret! Every time the door was opened, it led to a different place full of wonder and adventure.

One sunny morning, Sarah, a curious and imaginative 6-year-old girl, decided to explore the magical closet door. She turned the doorknob and stepped inside. To her surprise, she found herself standing in a lush

Together, they walked through the forest, encountering friendly creatures along the way. Sarah and Oliver solved riddles, crossed wobbly bridges, and climbed trees to find clues leading to the treasure. Finally, after a thrilling adventure, they reached a secret cave where the gnome resided.

The gnome, named Gizmo, was impressed by Sarah's bravery and rewarded her with a golden key. He told her that the key could unlock any door in the magical world. With a grateful smile, Sarah thanked Gizmo and bid farewell to the Enchanted Forest.

The Magic Door Part 2

As she walked back through the magical closet door, Sarah found herself standing in her own bedroom once again. She realized that even though the adventures were exciting, nothing was as wonderful as her own cozy home. Sarah tucked the golden key safely into her pocket, knowing that she could always return to the Enchanted Forest whenever she wished.
