Super Sam Saves the Day! Part 1

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, in a small town called Sunnyville, there was a little boy named Sam. Sam was just like any other kindergartener, but he had a special secret. After school, Sam would turn into a superhero and help people in need.

During the day, Sam would sit quietly in his classroom, listening to his teacher and playing with his friends. But when the final bell rang, Sam's secret identity emerged. He would run to the nearest phone

With his super strength, he flew up to the tree and gently brought the kitten down to safety.

As Super Sam continued to patrol the town, he spotted a group of children who had lost their soccer ball in the lake. Without hesitation, he dove into the water and retrieved the ball with his incredible swimming skills. The children cheered with joy as Super Sam handed them back their precious ball.

Later that day, Super Sam heard a cry for help coming from the candy store. He rushed over and saw that the store owner was being bothered by a mischievous squirrel. The squirrel had jumped onto the shelves, knocking down candy and making a mess. Super Sam used his super speed to catch the squirrel and returned it safely to the nearby park.

With each heroic act, Super Sam's confidence grew. He loved helping people and making the world a better place. And when the sun set, he would return to his normal self, ready to be just another kindergartener the next day.
