Time (Travel) Changes Everything Part 1

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, in the small town of Oakville, there lived a curious second-grade student named Max. Max had a secret superpower that no one else knew about—he could time-travel! With just a simple touch of his special watch, Max could transport himself and others through time.

One sunny morning, Max's teacher, Mrs. Johnson, announced that they would be going on a field trip to learn about historical events first-students marveled at the massive structures, imagining the hard work and dedication it took to build them. Max explained the importance of the pyramids and how they served as tombs for pharaohs. The class took notes and sketched drawings of what they saw.

Next, Max took the class to the time of the Renaissance. They found themselves in a bustling marketplace in Florence, Italy. The students were surrounded by merchants, painters, and musicians. Max pointed out the famous artists, Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo, who were working on their masterpieces. The class admired the art and listened to lively tunes played by street musicians.
