

Name _____

Introduction to Personification Part 1

Personification is when we give human (or person) qualities to objects or animals.

Sample Sentence: The trees whispered in the wind.

Here, the author is giving the trees the trait of whispering.

Directions: underline the non-human object that is being personified in these sentences.

Complete

Hunger

Personification

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

Comparison: _____

My soft bed called for me.

Personification: _____

Comparison: _____

A soft breeze tickled her cheek.

Name _____

Introduction to Personification Part 2

Personification: _____

Comparison: _____

That storm just wouldn't quit.

Personification: _____

Comparison: _____

It was _____

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

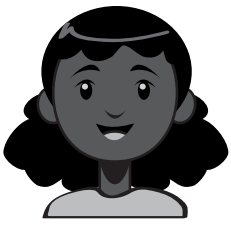

Personification: _____

Comparison: _____

This city never sleeps.

Personification: _____

Comparison: _____

Name _____

Personification Answer Key

Hungry waves ate away at the shore.

Personification: waves

Comparison: hungry like it's alive

My soft bed called for me.

Personification: bed

Comparison: calling like a person calls

A so

Person

Com

That

Person

Comparison: quit like a person

PREVIEW

Please login or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

www.allkidsnetwork.com

It was a joyful bouquet.

Personification: bouquet

Comparison: joyful like a person

This city never sleeps.

Personification: city

Comparison: sleeping like it's alive